

Jeanne P. Lukasavage
Becton, Dickinson and Company

Jeanne P. Lukasavage is Associate General Counsel-Intellectual Property at Becton, Dickinson and Company (BD) where she is responsible for global intellectual property strategy for the Medication and Procedural Solutions business unit. Ms. Lukasavage manages international intellectual property litigation, intellectual property procurement and portfolio development, and intellectual property risk mitigation and provides strategic counseling throughout the world for the $3.4B business unit. In addition, Ms. Lukasavage spearheaded the development of an interactive intellectual property education program for BD which has trained over 1000 associates worldwide on the fundamentals of intellectual property. In recognition of her contributions, impact and innovation, Ms. Lukasavage has received several business awards including the President's Award for Excellence, the Office of Science, Medicine and Technology's Award for Outstanding Achievement and the BD Women's Hero Award, as well as the Henry Becton Volunteer Impact Award recognizing her volunteer work with the Valerie Fund in New Jersey. In addition, Ms. Lukasavage is a certified swim official and serves as the Head Official for the Madison YMCA Swim Team. Prior to BD, Ms. Lukasavage was an associate with Gibbons, DeIDeo, Dolan, Griffinger and Vecchione in Newark, NJ and Lerner, David, Littenberg, Krumholz and Mentlink in Westfield, NJ. Ms. Lukasavage earned a Bachelor of Mechanical Engineering from the Catholic University of America and a JD from Seton Hall University, and is admitted to practice in New Jersey, New York and the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.